COMPENDIUM OF AWARDS

Marine Corps War College

Distinguished Graduate Program. The Marine Corps War College's Distinguished Graduate Program is designed to recognize superior achievement and encourage the highest degree of excellence. At the end of the academic year, the Marine Corps War College faculty selects the top two officers in the class, based upon a holistic evaluation of the officer's leadership qualities and superior academic performance, with emphasis on academic performance. These officers are recognized during the graduation ceremony, awarded a cash prize from the Marine Corps University Foundation, and their official records are appropriately annotated.

Faculty Writing Award. The faculty Writing Award is presented to the Marine Corps War College student whose research paper is determined to be most suitable for publication in a professional journal for that academic year. All Marine Corps War College student research papers will be considered for this award.

Command and Staff College

The Colonel Franklin Brooke Nihart Award. Presented in honor of Colonel Franklin Brooke Nihart, U. S. Marine Corps, Retired, by his family and the Marine Corps University Foundation to the student who writes the best Master of Military Studies paper. Award: $600 check and a framed certificate.

The Colonel Bevan G. Cass Awards. Presented in honor of Colonel Bevan G. Cass, U. S. Marine Corps, by the Marine Corps Association to the students whose papers are determined to be the best on a topic concerned with the profession of arms bearing directly on the Marine Corps. Awards: First place, $600 check and a certificate; second place, $400 check and a certificate.

The Lieutenant General John A. Lejeune Award. Presented in memory of Lieutenant General John A. Lejeune, U. S. Marine Corps, the thirteenth Commandant of the Marine Corps by the Marine Corps League to the student whose paper is determined to be the best paper on a military topic. Award: $500 check and plaque.

The Lieutenant General Edward W. Snedeker Award. Presented in honor of the late Lieutenant General Edward W. Snedeker, U. S. Marine Corps, Retired, by the Armed Forces Communication and Electronics Association Educational Fund to the student whose paper is determined to be the best on a topic related to command and control, communications, information systems or intelligence and suitable for publication in a professional journal. Award: engraved desk clock.

Intelligence Writing Award. Established by the Central Intelligence Agency's (CIA), Office of Military Affairs in 1996, this award is presented to the student whose paper on intelligence or an intelligence-related topic is judged to be most outstanding. Award: engraved medallion.

The Brigadier A. W. Hammett Award. Presented in memory of Brigadier A. W. "Tony" Hammett, AM, Royal Australian Regiment, by the members of his U. S. Award: engraved clock.

School of Advanced Warfare

The Clifton B. Cates Award. Presented in honor of General Clifton B. Cates, U.S. Marine Corps, the 19th Commandant of the Marine Corps, by the Navy League to the two SAW students whose sustained demonstration of problem-solving capabilities far exceed their military experience and are considered most outstanding as exhibited by written assignments, participation in practical exercises, and in the exchange of ideas. First place presented with an engraved watch; second place, a $100 savings bond.

Communication Information Systems Officers Course

Honor Graduate Award. The CISOC graduate with the highest final overall score for the course is the Honor Graduate and receives a plaque from the Marine Corps Association.

Commanding General's Honor Roll. The Honor Roll recognizes those officers who graduate in the top ten percent of their class. Academic achievement is considered in conjunction with demonstrated leadership and contributions made to the professional development of fellow students. Students are recognized with a letter from the Commanding General, which is included in their permanent records.

Academic Honor Award. The CISOC graduate with the highest academic average for the course receives the CISOC Academic Honor Award and receives an engraved plaque provided by the Armed Forces Communication and Electronics Association. The student's name is also added to a permanent plaque displayed at CCSS.

Staff Noncommissioned Officers Academy

Honor Graduate. The top ten percent of each class is placed on the President's Honor Roll. The honor graduates of the Sergeants and Career Courses and the Advanced Course receive a Noncommissioned Officer Sword. This award is provided by the Marine Corps Association.

Gung Ho Award. The students from each class nominate one of their own for this award. Nominations are based on who showed the most motivation and esprit-de-corps through the course. This award is presented by the Marine Corps Reserve Fleet Association.

Sergeant Major of the Marine Corps Writing Award. Each course has a writing requirement with the top essay for the Sergeant's Course, Credo for the Career Course, and Professional Article for the Advanced Course receiving a certificate from the Marine Corps Association.

Sergeant Major of the Marine Corps Annual Writing Award. Each course submits the top essay for the Sergeant's Course, Credo for the Career Course, and Professional Article for the Advanced Course to the Enlisted Professional Military Education Branch. The Enlisted professional Military Education Branch convenes a board to determine the top piece for each course. The winners will receive a monetary prize and certificate from the Marine Corps Association.
